

Michael J. Zinno, CPA, MBA became Superintendent of JCBDD in June 2017.

Michael has 20+ years of management and leadership experience in the developmental disabilities field. Before becoming Superintendent, he served as the Finance Director of JCBDD, managing not only the financial operations but maintenance, transportation, Information technology, the federal lunch program, and served on the leadership team for the previous two Superintendents. He began his career as a Staff Account for St. John Medical Center (now Trinity West). He then moved on to become the Controller for Bethany College before becoming the Finance Director for JCBDD.

Michael has a bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a major in Accounting from Kent State University, and a master's degree in business administration from Franciscan University of Steubenville.

Michael is an active member of the community, serving on many non-profit boards and participating in local organizations.

He lives with his wife and two children in Steubenville.