

Rachel A. Bodo became principal of JCBDD in August 2010.

Rachel holds a Master of Education degree. She holds a license from the Ohio department of education as an Administrative Specialist in curriculum, instruction and professional development. Intervention specialist (moderate /intensive) k-12, Education of the handicapped k-12, kindergarten-elementary k-8 Principal PK-12, and she also holds a Superintendent license.

Before becoming the principal at JCBDD, Rachel taught at Harrison County BD of DD as the adapted PE teacher, Toronto city schools as an autism classroom teacher, School of Bright Promise MD teacher, Wood County BD of DD for 3 years as an intervention specialist, Indian creek school district served 3 years as an intervention specialist before becoming an assistant principal and the preschool supervisor.

Currently Rachel has served as principal, preschool supervisor, and early intervention supervisor for service providers for 8 years at JCBDD. She also oversees the resident educator program, LPDC committee, and professional development. Rachel also serves on the human rights committee and Children & Family 1st council.